2nd Annual Doctoral Student Conference

VDS CoBeNe PhD Academy

Wednesday - Friday, 1st – 3rd February 2023, University of Vienna, Main Building, Universitätsring 1, 1010 Vienna

What is the VDS CoBeNe PhD Academy?

- A conference open to all PhD candidates and supervisors affiliated with the Vienna Doctoral School CoBeNe, as well as Master students.
- A chance for doctoral candidates to present their work to an audience of peers at any stage of their PhD.
- An occasion for speakers to gain 4 ECTS.
- A two-day event bringing together researchers from Psychology, Neuroscience, Behavioral/Cognitive Biology and Cognitive Humanities.

Abstract guidelines

- PhD candidates submit abstracts for talks, Master students submit abstracts for posters.
- No more than 250 words.
- Submitting work in progress, preregistrations, etc. is no problem.
- Abstracts must be written for an interdisciplinary audience (i.e. people outside your specific field of research should understand what your talk will be about).
- Abstracts must contain clear information on what is being presented (i.e. preregistration / study plan, work in progress, or a completed study); depending on what is being submitted, abstracts should include information about the theoretical background of the work/research gap, research question, sample, study design, analytic procedures, and results.

Registration is now open!

If you want to submit an abstract or just register to attend without presenting: Fill in this form https://is.gd/cobene2023 including a short abstract (max. 250 words) until November 15th, 2022
