

Tenure Track Position Konrad Lorenz Forschungsstelle Grünau

Presentations and hearings of the candidates
UZA2, Room 2D404

Monday, 29. January 2018

Student lecture Costs and benefits of social life

9:30 Wiebke Schütt (University of Hamburg)

10:00 Sonia Kleindorfer (Flinders University, Adelaide)

10:30 Sabine Tebbich (University of Vienna)

Lunch break

Minisymposium Part I

12:30 Wiebke Schütt (University of Hamburg): Evolution of individual variation: from nosy neighbours to personality differences

13:00 Sonia Kleindorfer (Flinders University, Adelaide): How to survive parasites: birds teach, learn and evolve

15 min break

13:45 Sabine Tebbich (University of Vienna): Linking behavioural biology and conservation research: The interaction between an invasive parasite and its naive hosts, the Darwin's finches

14:30 Interviews in the Dean's office (exclusively open for the panel)

Tuesday, 30. January 2018

Student lecture Costs and benefits of social life

9:30 Michael Griesser (University of Zurich)

10:00 Claudia Wascher (Anglia Ruskin University, Cambridge)

10:30 Jorg Massen (University of Vienna)

Lunch break

Minisymposium Part II

12:30 Michael Griesser (University of Zurich): Family living: the critical steppingstone for the evolution of kin cooperation

13:00 Claudia Wascher (Anglia Ruskin University, Cambridge): Coping with social life: Optimization of individual investment

15 min break

13:45 Jorg Massen (University of Vienna): Social systems and cooperative complexity

14:30 Interviews in the Dean's office (exclusively open for the panel)